

In just three years (2019-2021) New Mexico issued 209,431 driver's license suspensions. Nearly 90% were issued because the person could not afford to pay court debt, or because they could not attend a court hearing.

Source: 2019-21 License suspension data provided by the New Mexico Motor Vehicle Division.